Acknowledgments

These books were developed on the unceded territories of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations. Huy tseep q'u! Chen kw'enmántumiyap! Kw'as hoy!

I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to work on this project alongside a dedicated team of basic education instructors from across British Columbia. This series was shepherded by Leanne Caillier-Smith (College of the Rockies) and benefited enormously from the insight and encouragement of Julia Dodge (University of the Fraser Valley), Chandra McCann (Okanagan College), Jan Weiten (Vancouver Community College), and Melinda Worfolk (College of New Caledonia). The above five mentioned are representatives of the BC Adult Literacy Articulation Committee and were the advisory committee members for this project. It has been a pleasure to scaffold my own learning among such brilliant and passionate educators.

Huge thanks to Lauri Aesoph of BCcampus for introducing me to the exciting open textbook movement and managing all aspects of the publication of these books — from layout and image selection to copyediting and print —so adeptly.

I am incredibly lucky to work with and have the support of the Basic Education Department at Vancouver Community College: Cynthia Bluman, Andrew Candela, Lynn Horvat, Alayna Kruger, Jo Lemay, Edie Mackenzie, Rene Merkel, Tara Mollel, Linda Rider, Mary Thompson-Boyd, Jan Weiten, our Program Assistant, Nadia Kawas, and our Dean, David Wells. I am also deeply grateful to the basic education students at Vancouver Community College for all that you teach me about dreams, resilience, and perseverance.

A special thank you to my partner, Marria, for always lending my words an eager ear, and for keeping the world around me turning even though my head was perpetually stuck in these books.

Notes to the Instructor

As a basic education instructor, I find that my students crave reading materials that lead to deeper understandings of, and connections to, the world that we live in. My students tend to have plenty of knowledge of human rights issues from lived experience. These issues are often closely linked to the reasons they find themselves in my classroom.

My goal with this course pack is to provide examples of everyday people who took a stand in everyday ways: refusing to go along with an unfair situation, writing letters, sharing their story, voting, using humour, and starting conversations in the name of social change. These are things we can all do to restore hope, advocate for ourselves, and build the kind of world we want to live in.

This theme-based, integrated skills course pack is designed to meet the learning outcomes for Adult Literacy Fundamental English Level 4, as outlined in the ABE in BC 2014/2015 Articulation Handbook. This is roughly equivalent to grades 4.5 to 6 in the K-12 system.

The curriculum in this course pack is based around the readings found in BC Reads: Adult Literacy Fundamental English – Reader 4. The reader includes nine level-appropriate, high-interest readings of 400-500 words. Convenient links to the readings are embedded in each chapter of this course pack.

Each chapter of the course pack contains:

- Pre-reading questions that can be used for individual reflection, journalling, or class discussion
- Vocabulary-building exercises
- Word Attack Strategies
- Comprehension questions
- Grammar lessons and practice exercises
- Writing tasks

For detailed information, please refer to the Level 4 Scope and Sequence.

This course pack makes use of a number of graphic organizers to help students organize their thoughts in a visual way. You can download the complete set of graphic organizers from Appendix 1. Students can also download and print them as needed, through the links embedded throughout the course pack.

In Appendix 2, you will find checklists to score the writing tasks assigned at the end of each chapter.

You may wish to use this program online, or you may wish to print it for your students by downloading it as a PDF. This program was designed to suit both options. Font size and line spacing can be adjusted in the online view, and have been enhanced for the print and PDF versions for easier reading. (In addition, both epub and mobi files are offered for students with e-readers and Kindles.) This course pack has been reviewed by subject experts from colleges and universities.

I hope these pages help learners to reach their individual literacy goals, while building capacity to create positive social change in our communities.

Get Ready to Read

- What rights do you think everyone should have?
- Is everyone in Canada always treated like they have the same rights?

Vocabulary

Figure out what the bold word means by looking at how it is used in the sentence. Match it to the best meaning.

1. The United Nations made a list of human rights that all people need to live with freedom and respect .	a. Being unable to agree

Word Attack Strategy

Word Patterns

A prefix is a beginning part of a word.

- The prefix uni- means one or all together.
- The prefix pro- means to put forward.

Use Your Reading Skills

Read *The Story of Our Human Rights* in your reader. Return to this page when you are done.

Check Your Understanding

Find the Topic and Main Idea

The topic of a text is the person or thing that the text is written about. To find the topic, start by looking at the title of the text. The title The Story of Our Human Rights tells us that the topic of this text is human rights.

The main idea is the point the writer is making about the topic. A text is usually written for one main purpose:

Purpose	Example
To describe something	What is the town of Fernie, BC, like?
To explain how to do something	How do you bake salmon?
To tell a story about something	What's the story of how Raven stole the sun?
To compare different things	Do you prefer biking or taking the bus? Why?
To explain the advantages or disadvantages of something	What are the advantages of waking up early?
To summarize something	What was the movie Smoke Signals about?

We can figure out the main idea by looking for the point of each paragraph.

1. Re-read the first paragraph of The Story of Our Human Rights. Choose the best summary of the paragraph.

- a. This paragraph describes the ways human beings are different.
- b. This paragraph is about the disadvantages of being a human being.
- c. This paragraph compares human beings to other animals.

2. Re-read the second paragraph of The Story of Our Human Rights. Choose the best summary of the paragraph.

- a. This paragraph is about the disadvantages of the United Nations.
- b. This paragraph compares the United Nations to Canada.
- c. This paragraph explains that the United Nations created a list of human rights to help everyone get along, even though we are all different.

3. Re-read the list in the third paragraph. Choose the best summary of the paragraph.

- a. This list is about the advantages of voting.
- b. This list compares human rights in different countries.
- c. This list summarizes the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

4. Re-read the fourth paragraph. Choose the best summary of the paragraph.

- a. This paragraph explains how to stand up for your rights in Canada.
- b. This paragraph explains that Canadians have the rights in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, but we didn't always.
- c. This paragraph tells the story of a Canadian who stood up for human rights.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Summarize

The best way to make sure you understand a text is to summarize it. A summary:

- is written in your own words
- does not give your opinion
- begins with a topic sentence that shows what you are summarizing and who wrote it
- includes the main idea of each paragraph
- does not include the details that explain the main ideas

Here is an example of a summary. Fill in the blanks with words that makes sense.

The writer summarizes this list, which is known as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Today, (4)_____ have the rights in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, but we didn't always.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Grammar

Subjects and Verbs

Read this text about Lester Pearson. Lester Pearson was Prime Minister of Canada from 1963 to 1968.

Lester Pearson and the Peacekeepers

Lester Pearson fought in World War I as a pilot. He was deeply upset by what he saw. He wanted to help prevent future wars. So after World War II, he helped create the United Nations. Pearson came up with the idea of a UN peacekeeping force. Peacekeepers go into areas that are in conflict. They keep the peace while the two sides work toward a solution. For his idea, Pearson won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1957. To this day, thousands of Canadians serve as peacekeepers around the world.

Grammar Rule

Every sentence needs to have a subject and a verb.

- The subject is the part that tells who or what the sentence is about.
- The verb shows what the subject is or does.

In this sentence, the subject is underlined. The verb is in bold.

- Lester Pearson fought in World War I as a pilot.
- He was deeply affected by what he saw.
- He wanted to help prevent future wars.
- So after World War II, he helped create the United Nations.

For each sentence, underline the subject and circle the verb.

1. Pearson came up with the idea of a UN peacekeeping force.
2. Peacekeepers go into areas that are in conflict.
3. They keep the peace while the two sides work toward a non-violent solution.
4. For his idea, Pearson won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1957.
5. To this day, thousands of Canadians serve as peacekeepers around the world.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Homonyms

Homonyms are two words that sound the same but mean different things. The box below has some words from The Story of Our Human Rights, along with their homonym.

right	peace	clothes	would write	piece	close	wood

Choose the best homonym to complete each sentence.

1. The United Nations works for world _____.
2. Do you want a _____ of cake?
3. I chopped some _____ for the fireplace.
4. _____ you pass me the butter?
5. Basic education is a basic _____.
6. He likes to _____ short stories.
7. I'm cold. Can you _____ the window?
8. Some people say, "The _____ make the man."

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Writing

At the end of each chapter, you will have one or two writing assignments to complete. Talk to your instructor about setting due dates for each assignment. Keep track of these due dates using the My Writing Assignments sheet or an agenda.

Write a Summary

Writing Task

Write a summary of the paragraph about Lester Pearson. Keep it short, with no more than three sentences.

Use this checklist to edit your work:

- Did I write it in my own words?
- Did I avoid giving my opinion?
- Did I begin with a topic sentence that says what I am summarizing and who wrote it?
- Did I include the main ideas?
- Did I leave out the less important details?
- Do all of my sentences have a subject and a verb?
- Is my summary the right length?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Write about Long-Term Goals

A long-term goal is something you want to do in the future. It takes a lot of time and planning. It is something that you cannot do this week, this month, or even this year. For example, the long-term goal of the United Nations is world peace.

Let's make some long-term goals using a medicine wheel. The medicine wheel is found in many First Nations cultures. It teaches us many things. One teaching is that we are all equal within the circle. Another teaching is that we are all spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical beings. Here are some of the needs we have:

spiritual	We need to connect with the world and serve the greater good through friendship, love, volunteering, and celebrating.
emotional	We need to connect with our feelings, respect ourselves, feel joy, and have time for play.
physical	We need to take care of our bodies. We need clean air, food, exercise, rest, safety, and shelter.
mental	We need to learn and understand through listening, speaking, reading, remembering, reflecting, and reasoning.

Writing Task

Think of at least one long-term goal for each part of the medicine wheel. Write it down.

1. Viola had her own line of beauty products .	a. Responsible for carrying out a crime or doing something wrong
2. The police had to drag her. “I just sort of went limp ,” Viola said. “I didn’t want to make it easy for them.”	b. A person who helps people with the law

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Answer each question with a complete sentence. Use the word in bold.

1. What are your favourite products from the grocery store?
2. Some people think that the prison system does not help people who are guilty of crimes to act differently in the future. What do you think?
3. Would you want to be a lawyer? Why or why not?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Word Attack Strategy

A syllable is a beat in a word. Each syllable has one vowel sound. For example, cat has one syllable. Catnip has two syllables: cat + nip. Syllables follow different patterns. In this chapter, you will study the consonant –le pattern.

Word Patterns

Look at these words:

- table
- little
- able
- single

They all end with a consonant followed by the letters -le. These three letters make one syllable:

- ta-ble
- lit-tle
- a-ble
- sin-gle

Every syllable needs a vowel. The e is just there to be a vowel. The e is silent.

Break these words into syllables.

1. cuddle = _____ + _____

2. giggle = _____ + _____

3. staple = _____ + _____

4. ankle = _____ + _____

5. puddle = _____ + _____

6. candle = _____ + _____

7. handle = _____ + _____

8. sprinkle = _____ + _____

9. paddle = _____ + _____

10. sample = _____ + _____

11. middle = _____ + _____

12. battle = _____ + _____

13. bottle = _____ + _____

14. title = _____ + _____

15. example = _____ + _____ + _____

Use Your Reading Skills

Read *The Story of Viola Desmond* in your reader. Return to this page when you are done.

Check Your Understanding

Sum Up the Main Idea

1. What is the topic of this text?

a. Viola Desmond

b. Beauty products

c. Movie theatres

2. What is the main idea of this text?

- a. This text explains what to do if you get arrested.
- b. This text is about the history of movie theatres in Nova Scotia.
- c. This text tells the story of how Viola Desmond stood up for the rights of black people in Nova Scotia.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

3. Open and print this Sum It Up sheet. Fill it in with the main idea.

Writers support their main ideas with details. A detail could be a fact or an example. What details support the main idea? In other words, what did Viola do to stand up for the rights of black people in Nova Scotia?

4. Add supporting details to your Sum It Up sheet. You do not need to fill all the boxes.

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Understanding Cause and Effect

Read the words in 1, 2, 3, and 4. Choose the best ending to complete each sentence: a, b, c, or d.

- 1. Viola went to see a movie at the Roseland Theatre _____
- 2. Viola was taken from the theatre by police _____
- 3. Viola had to defend herself in court _____
- 4. The province got rid of its racist laws _____
  - a. because her car broke down and she was waiting for it to get fixed.
  - b. because Viola's case brought people together to fight for equality.
  - c. because she refused to sit where the black people were supposed to sit.
  - d. because nobody told her she could call a lawyer.

Grammar

Compound Sentences

We can make our writing more interesting by using a variety of sentence types. So far, you have learned about simple sentences. A simple sentence has one subject and one verb. In this lesson, you will study compound sentences.

A compound sentence joins two simple sentences together with a comma and one of these words:

and	used to add information
but	used to show contrast
or	used to show options
so	used to show the effect of something

These words are called conjunctions. Conjunctions are joining words.

Turn each pair of simple sentences into one compound sentence. Remember to add a comma and a conjunction. The first one is done for you as an example.

1. Viola had some free time. She decided to go to a movie.

Viola had some free time, so she decided to go to a movie.

2. Viola wanted to sit on the main floor. The staff told her she could not.

3. Viola went back to the ticket booth. She asked for a ticket for the main floor.

---

4. She was told that the main floor was for white people. The balcony was for black people.

---

5. Viola could not see from the balcony. She sat on the main floor.

---

6. The police said, “You must move now. We will arrest you.”

---

7. Nobody had told her she could call a lawyer. She had to defend herself.

---

8. She did not know how courtrooms worked. She was found guilty.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Irregular Verbs

Grammar Rule

To make the past tense form of most verbs, add an –ed ending:

- Viola dreamed of having her own beauty product business.
- She decided to go see a movie while she waited for her car to be fixed.
- She asked for a ticket for the main floor.
- The police grabbed her by the arms and took her from the theatre.
- Her husband begged her to forget about what had happened and move on.

Some verbs break this rule. These verbs are called irregular verbs. You have to memorize the past tense form of irregular verbs.

Match each present form verb to its irregular past tense form.

Present Tense Form	Past Tense Form
1. say	did
2. make	left
3. go	told
4. take	began
5. come	brought
6. see	wrote
7. know	thought
8. get	kept
9. fight	became
10. find	felt
11. do	said
12. think	saw
13. tell	made
14. become	got
15. leave	found
16. feel	fought
17. bring	took
18. begin	went
19. keep	knew
20. write	came

Fill in the blanks. Use the past tense form of the verb in brackets.

Oscar Peterson was one of the most famous jazz musicians in the world. But as an African Canadian, he faced a lot of racism. He (begin) _____(21) his career as a musician at age 14. ## Writing

Write a Summary

Writing Task

Look back at the Sum It Up sheet you wrote about Viola Desmond. Write a summary of the text. It should be between 5 and 10 sentences.

Use this checklist to edit your work:

- Did I write it in my own words?
- Did I avoid giving my opinion?
- Did I begin with a topic sentence that says what I am summarizing and who wrote it?
- Did I include the main ideas?
- Did I leave out less important details?
- Do all of my sentences have a subject and a verb?
- Did I use regular and irregular verbs correctly?

- Is my summary the right length?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Write a Postcard to Your Future Self

Look back at your Long-Term Goals Medicine Wheel. Choose one long-term goal. Make a list of small steps you could take this week to move toward that goal. These are called short-term goals. For example:

Long-Term Goal	Short-Term Goals
Get a job as a carpenter.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Attend all my classes.</li> <li>• Get to school on time.</li> <li>• Do all my homework.</li> <li>• Ask questions when I don't understand something.</li> <li>• Eat and sleep well so I can focus.</li> </ul>
Have a stronger body.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ask a friend to be my workout buddy.</li> <li>• Get a gym pass.</li> <li>• Work out at the gym four times a week.</li> <li>• Eat healthy food.</li> </ul>

Writing Task

Imagine yourself 10 years from now. You have reached your long-term goal. On the A Postcard from My Future Self sheet (also shown below):

1. Write a message to yourself about what you did to reach your goal. Use your list of short-term goals to help you.
2. Describe what you like about your life.
3. Choose a picture for the front of your postcard. You can draw one or find one to glue on.

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Word Attack Strategy

Word Patterns

A suffix is an end part of a word. The suffix –able means “can be.”

For example: Reading is enjoyable.

Enjoyable describes something that can be enjoyed.

Match the word to the correct definition.

Word	Meaning
1. reasonable	Describes something that can bring comfort
2. fashionable	Describes something you can notice
3. comfortable	Describes something you can love
4. affordable	Describes something that is in fashion
5. loveable	Describes someone who can use reason
6. noticeable	Describes something you can afford

Break these words into syllables. Remember that every syllable has a vowel and -ble is a separate syllable.

7. comfortable = com + _____ + ta + _____

8. affordable = _____ + for + _____ + ble

9. loveable = _____ + a + _____

10. noticeable = _____ + tice + _____ + _____

11. reasonable = rea + _____ + _____ + _____

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Use Your Reading Skills

Read The Story of Nellie McClung in your reader. Return to this page when you are done.

Check Your Understanding

Find the Topic and Main Idea

1. What is the topic of this text?

- a. Picnics
- b. Women's rights
- c. Nelly McClung

2. What is the main idea of this text?

- a. This text tells the story of how Nellie McClung helped change Canadians' views about the role of women.

Open and print a Sum It Up sheet. Write down the main idea. Add one supporting detail for each box (Think: What did Nellie do to help change Canadians' views about the role of women?)

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Identify Sequence

Readers need to understand the different ways that writers organize texts. In texts about history, writers often explain the events in the same order that they happened in real life.

Match the events and the dates. Copy the sentences in the correct order.

- 1. 1882 _____
- 2. 1918 _____
- 3. 1921 _____
- 4. 1929 _____
- 5. 1951 _____
  - a. White women got the right to vote.
  - b. Women were allowed to sit in the Senate.
  - c. Nellie died.
  - d. Nellie was told girls should not run in races.
  - e. Nellie became an MLA.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Understanding the Difference Between Fact and Opinion

A fact is something that can be proven. People can usually agree on the truth of facts. An opinion is a judgment about what is right and wrong, or what is better or worse. Different people have different opinions.

Look at each statement. Which one is a fact? Which one is an opinion?

1. Girls should not run in races.
2. Nellie McClung was not allowed to run in races when she was a child.
3. Men are more reasonable than women.
4. Before 1918, women were not allowed to vote or be in government.
5. It is wrong to use violence to fight for your rights.
6. Nelly used humour instead of violence to fight for women's rights.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Grammar

Compound Sentences

Turn each pair of simple sentences into one compound sentence. Remember to add a comma and a conjunction (and, but, or, so).

1. Some activists used violence to get their point across. Nellie used humour.
2. Men were seen as reasonable. Women were seen as emotional.
3. Nellie pointed out that most of the people in prison were men. Men made up only a small number of the people who went to church.
4. Women of colour were treated even worse than white women. Nellie called for an end to racism.
5. Nellie's health declined. She kept fighting for women's rights.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Capital Letters

Grammar Rule

To understand the rules about capital letters, it helps to know that there are two kinds of nouns — common nouns and proper nouns.

A common noun is a general person, place, thing, or idea. Common nouns do not need capitals.

A proper noun is a specific person, place, thing, or idea. Proper nouns need capitals.

Examples:

Common Nouns	Proper Nouns
woman	Mary
school	Douglas College
country	Canada
city	Kamloops
ocean	Pacific Ocean
book	Anne of Green Gables
month	June
event	New Year's Eve

Edit these sentences by adding capital letters where needed.

1. Nellie was born in chatsworth, ontario.
2. Her first book was called sowing seeds in danny.
3. Nellie married a man named wes. They had five children together.
4. She started the women's political equality league, which fought to give women the right to vote.
5. She went on speaking tours in canada and the united states. She even crossed the atlantic ocean to give speeches in england.
6. She died on september 1, 1951, near victoria, british columbia.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Answer these questions in complete sentences. Use capitals where needed.

7. What is your favourite restaurant?
8. What is the title of the last movie you saw?
9. What month were you born in?
10. What country would you most like to visit?
11. What is the name of your favourite singer?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Writing

Organize a Paragraph

A paragraph is a group of sentences about one topic. A paragraph should include:

- A topic sentence that explains the main idea or point you want to make
- Supporting details that back up your point
- A concluding sentence that reminds the reader of your main idea

Decide what order these sentences should go in.

- a. Second, our government may not make decisions that are good for us if we do not vote. We could lose important rights and freedoms.
- b. In conclusion, Canadians should always take time to mark a ballot on election day.
- c. Everyone in Canada over the age of 18 should vote.
- d. First, our country will not be healthy if people do not vote. Voting is how we make decisions together.
- e. Third, voting does not take a lot of time or effort. It will likely take less than an hour of your day once every few years.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Writing Task

Rewrite the sentences above in the correct order and in paragraph form. Do not start a new line for each new sentence. Each sentence should follow the one before it.

Fill Out a Voter Registration Form

In order to vote, you must fill out a form to get on the government's voters list. This is called registering to vote.

1. Look at Nellie McClung's Voter Registration form.
2. Open and print your own Voter Registration form. Follow Nellie's example but use your own information.

Ask your instructor to check your work.

3. If you are not registered to vote and you would like to be, mail your form to the address at the bottom of the sheet.

Writing

Describing Home

1. Re-read the first paragraph of the reading.

The topic of this paragraph is Joy's childhood home. To bring the description to life, the writer described how it looked, sounded, and smelled.

2. Describe some things you might see in Joy's childhood home.

3. Describe something you might smell in Joy's childhood home.

---

4. Describe some things you might hear in Joy's childhood home.

---

Now think about the places you have called home — even if it was only for one night. What place did you like the best? Try to use your senses to describe it.

5. What did it look like?

---

6. How did it smell?

---

7. Describe the sounds you often heard there.

---

8. Was there any furniture you really liked? What did it feel like?

---

Writing Task

Use your answers above to write a paragraph describing your favourite home. Use adjectives in your paragraph. For an added challenge, try using commas as well.

When you are done, use this checklist to edit your paragraph:

- Did I begin with a topic sentence that says what I am writing about?
- Did I include supporting details about how the home looks, smells, sounds, and made me feel?
- Did I end with a concluding sentence?
- Are all of my sentences complete?
- Did I use commas correctly?
- Did I use adjectives correctly?
- Did I spell plural words correctly?

Hand in your paragraph to your instructor.

Using an Apostrophe to Show Who Owns What

Look at these phrases:

- Joy's house in Vancouver was going to be torn down.
- Gay men's names were printed in newspapers.
- Tommy stood up for workers' rights.

Why is there an apostrophe (') in each phrase? The apostrophe shows who owns what.

- The house belongs to Joy.
- The names belong to the men.
- The rights belong to the workers.

Grammar Rule

Here are the rules for adding an apostrophe:

If...	Example	Add
The owner is singular	Joy's house	's
The owner is plural and does not end in s	men's names	's
The owner is plural and ends in s	workers' rights	'

Add apostrophes as needed.

1. A large number of First Nations cultures traditionally believed in many genders. Some peoples spirits were seen as a mix of male and female. Today, these people refer to themselves as Two-Spirit.
2. In the past, Two-Spirit people wore a mix of mens clothing and womens clothing.
3. Two-Spirit people also had special roles. If a childs parents were not raising him or her well, a Two-Spirit person was often asked to raise the child. Two-Spirit people were also teachers, artists, and healers.
4. Two-Spirit people challenged Europeans belief in only two genders: male and female. For this, Europeans killed many Two-Spirit people.
5. Canadas laws were written to make First Nations people more like white people. As a result, the tradition of Two-Spirit people was almost lost.

6. In 1990, there was a large gathering of Two-Spirit people in Manitobas capital, the city of Winnipeg. They began a movement to relearn their traditional roles.
7. Two-Spirit people have shown great strength as they work to find acceptance in todays world.

3. Have you ever been part of a movement?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Word Attack Strategy

Word Patterns

When you see a word that you do not understand, look in the sentences around it for clues. Sometimes a writer will give you a definition or synonym. A synonym is a word with almost the same meaning.

Find the synonyms for the words in bold.

1. Raven tried to calculate, or figure out, how much of a tip to leave the server.

The synonym for calculate is _____.

2. The music was too loud for Ted to concentrate, or focus, on his homework.

The synonym for concentrate is _____.

3. I like TV shows that mock, or make fun of, people in government.

The synonym for mock is _____.

4. The Gum Chewing Club had an annual, or yearly, contest to see who could blow the biggest bubble.

The synonym for annual is _____.

5. I was furious, or angry, when the Canucks lost their tenth game in a row.

The synonym for furious is _____.

Now look at the reading for this lesson. Find the words in bold.

6. The synonym for residential school is _____.

7. The synonym for heathen is _____.

8. The synonym for MLA is _____.

9. The synonym for bill is _____.

1. What is the topic of this text?

a. Elijah Harper

- b. First Nations people
- c. The Manitoba government

2. What is the main idea of this text?

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

4. Using your answers above, write a short summary of this text. Include the topic, main idea, and one supporting detail.

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Making Inferences

Readers make educated guesses, based on what they know and what they have experienced. This is called making inferences.

We make inferences all the time. For example, when you go to a friend's house and there are no lights on, you might infer that they are not home.

When a classmate comes into the classroom with wet hair and clothes, you might infer that it is raining outside.

Think about the situations below. Make an inference.

Situation	Inference
1. The next time you see your friend, she has a sunburn.	Why do you think she has a sunburn?
2. You brought salad to a potluck. It got eaten quickly.	Why do you think the salad was eaten so quickly?

Think about these parts of the text. Make an inference.

Situation	Inference
3. Many of Elijah's classmates tried to run away from the residential school.	Why do you think many of his classmates tried to run away?
4. Elijah was holding an eagle feather when he voted against the prime minister's bill.	Why do you think Elijah held an eagle feather?
5. The reading says that Elijah paved the way for movements like Idle No More, which was just getting started when he passed away in 2013.	What do you think Idle No More is?

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Grammar

Review Possessive Apostrophes

Idle No More is a movement that started in Saskatchewan. This movement protests many things.

There are six possessive apostrophes missing below. Can you find them?

1. People in government are not protecting the Earths wellbeing.
2. Companies get rich from fishing, logging, and mining on First Nations land. The companies profits are not shared with First Nations people.
3. The reserves schools do not have enough money to provide a good education.
4. Many reserves do not have a nearby doctors office or hospital. People cannot get health care.
5. First Nations peoples daughters, sisters, and mothers go missing in large numbers. The government has not acted to stop violence against Aboriginal women.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Contractions

In the last chapter, you used an apostrophe to show who owns what. You can also use an apostrophe to write a contraction, a short form of a word. Here are some examples from the reading:

With a Contraction	Without a Contraction
First Nations people weren't allowed to vote or be in government.	First Nations people were not allowed to vote or be in government.
First Nations rights couldn't be ignored any longer.	First Nations rights could not be ignored any longer.
It didn't mention the role of First Nations people in building Canada.	It did not mention the role of First Nations people in building Canada.

Grammar Rule

This chart shows some common contractions:

Meaning	Contraction	Meaning	Contraction
I am	I'm	cannot	can't they are	they're	she is	she's
I will	I'll	could not	couldn't
they will	they'll	she will	she'll
I would	I'd	did not	didn't

will not	won't	it is/has	it's he will	he'll	should not	shouldn't would not	wouldn't
he would/had	he'd

Read this paragraph. Change the words in brackets to contractions.

The Indian Act is a law that decides who counts as an Aboriginal person. (It has) _____(1) existed since 1876. At first, the Indian Act said that any Aboriginal woman who married a man who (was not) _____(2) Aboriginal would lose her Indian status. This meant that she (could not) _____(3) live on reserve anymore. She (could not) _____(4) be a member of her band, so she (was not) _____(5) allowed to vote on reserve. Her kids would also lose these rights. They (were not) _____(6) allowed to go to school on reserve, either. If an Aboriginal man married a non-Aboriginal woman, he (did not) _____(7) lose these rights. Many Aboriginal women tried to fix this injustice through the courts. This (did not) _____(8) work. So they turned to the United Nations. The UN did a study and said Canada was guilty of ignoring many rights of Aboriginal people. The government said (they would) _____(9) fix the Indian Act, but they (did not) _____(10). Aboriginal women fought for change by forming groups, giving speeches, and writing letters. In 1985, the government finally changed the Indian Act. The change gave status back to all the women who were born with status and had lost it.

Check your work with the Answer Key at the end of this chapter.

Homonyms

These contractions are homonyms. Remember, homonyms are words that sound the same but have different meanings.

you're	he'll	we'll	it's your	heal	wheel	its

Use the best word to complete each sentence.

1. Keep both hands on the steering _____.
2. At this time next week, _____ be in Cuba!
3. Is this _____ coat?
4. I think _____ going to be a great dad.
5. Mike is coming, but _____ be late.
6. I hope my burn will _____ quickly.

Writing

Describe your Strengths

A sacred bundle is something carried by some Aboriginal people that holds spiritual items, medicines, and tools for helping themselves and others.

In the image of the bundle below, add words that describe some of your skills, special gifts, or talents. Think about how these help you as a learner. Think about how these allow you to help others.

Writing Task

Use your words from above to write a paragraph describing your strengths. Try to include some contractions in your writing.

When you are done, use this checklist to edit your paragraph:

- Did I begin with a topic sentence that says what I am writing about?
- Did I include details about what my strengths are?
- Did I end with a concluding sentence?
- Do all of my sentences have a subject and a verb?
- Did I use contractions correctly?
- Did I check my spelling with a dictionary?

Ask your instructor to check your work.

Word Attack Strategy

Word Patterns

Some letters can make more than one sound.
For example, g can say /g/ or /j/

You can hear /g/ in these words	You can hear /j/ in these words grab	age
flag	huge
gum	gentle

And c can say /k/ or /s/.

You can hear /k/ in these words	You can hear /s/ in these words locate	decide
protect	spice
fact	place

Here is the pattern:

- The g says /j/ when it is followed by e, i, or y.
- The c says /s/ when it is followed by e, i, or y.

Read the pair of letters below. Write the sound the letters make.

c = /k/ or /s/	g = /g/ or /j/
1. cy – c says / __ /	10. gr – g says / __ /
2. ci – c says / __ /	11. go – g says / __ /
3. cu – c says / __ /	12. gl – g says / __ /
4. cr – c says / __ /	13. ge – g says / __ /

Consistent Verb Tense

Look at these sentences. Can you figure out what is wrong?

A man was walking down the street. He heard a car honk. He looks up to see what is happening.

The writer changed from past tense to present tense for no reason.

Grammar Rule

When you are telling a story or describing something, be sure to use the same tense — unless you have a good reason not to. This is called using a consistent verb tense.

Fix these sentences so that they have a consistent verb tense.

1. The air was filled with the smell of popcorn with extra butter. The crowd went quiet as the room went dark. Suddenly, lights splash across the silver screen.
2. The sailboat floats slowly over the still blue sea. It creaks and groans. Seagulls cry from above. Then, a clap of thunder rang out from above.

Word Attack Strategy

Word Patterns

Some words have double vowels — two vowels side by side. The double vowels ow, oo, and ou are tricky because they each have two different sounds.

- ow can make a long /o/ sound like in snow
- ow can also make an /ou/ sound like in plow

- ou can make the sound /ou/ like in trout
- ou can also make a long /u/ sound like in soup

- oo can make a long /u/ sound like in school
- oo can also make the vowel sound in book

Notice that both ow and ou can make the /ou/ sound.

Notice that both ou and oo can make the long /u/ sound.
