

ALFE Level 6 Scope & Sequence

	Reading Skills	Writing Skills
Storytelling Goes Digital	Discuss writer's point of view. Appraise validity of material based on own experience. Use affixes: extra-, -or, -tion, and -al. Identify cause and effect. Recognize the sequence of events. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Identify the subject and verb in a sentence. Use pronouns correctly. Use outlining to organize writing. Write an opinion paragraph. Use a dictionary and thesaurus.
What's Your Story?	Use the suffixes -tion and -ize. Draw inferences and conclusions. Summarize information from a text. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Identify and correct sentence fragments. Use subject-verb agreement. Use a mind map to organize writing. Write a descriptive paragraph.
What's Your Message?	Use the suffixes -less, -tion, -al, and -ful. Analyze characters. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Use compound sentences. Use semi-colons in compound sentences. Write a narrative paragraph.
Setting the Tone	Use the affixes dis-, -ence, -ment, and -tion. Identify the tone of a text. Compare and contrast. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Identify and correct run-on sentences. Use quotation marks. Use outlining to organize writing. Write a how-to paragraph.
Writing the Script	Use the root "port" and the affixes -er, -or, -ly, im-, and ex-. Analyze characters. Make inferences and draw conclusions. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Use complex sentences. Distinguish between conversational and formal language. Use a web to organize writing. Write a business letter.
Seeing and Hearing Your Digital Story	Use the root "aud" and the affixes -ible, -ate, and -ity. Analyze characters. Compare and contrast. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Use commas with introductory words and phrases. Use consistent verb tense. Use an outline to plan a paragraph. Write a for/against paragraph. Use a computer search engine.
Getting Started with WeVideo	Use stressed syllables to sound out unknown words. Tell the difference between fact and opinion. Use an atlas. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Use commas with appositives. Use an outline to plan a paragraph. Argue for and against in discussions and written assignments
Bringing It All Together	Use syllabication to sound out unknown words. Make inferences and draw conclusions. Understand outcome. Evaluate own comprehension.	Respond to selected material after reading, viewing, and listening. Use commas in a series. Use a graphic organizer to plan a paragraph. Write a how-to paragraph.
Sharing Your Digital Story	Use syllabication to sound out unknown words. Make inferences and draw conclusions. Summarize a video. Evaluate own comprehension.	Use an apostrophe to show possession. Use an apostrophe in a contraction. Use an outline to plan a paragraph. Write a for/against paragraph.

