

Colonial Violence Wheel Activity

The Colonial Violence Wheel is a visual tool that can be used to help further discussion on the connections between colonial violence and sexualized violence. Each section of the wheel provides examples of strategies, policies, and laws that have been enacted by the Canadian government to colonize and assimilate Indigenous people.

Colonial Violence Wheel Activity

Discussion questions can include:

1. What do you already know about colonialism in Canada? What aspects of these strategies, policies and laws do you see in your life?
2. How do the strategies, policies, and laws described in the Wheel connect to sexism, racism, and other forms of discrimination?
3. How does colonial violence connect to sexualized violence? For example, what is the connection between self-determination at an individual level (control of one's own body) and at a community level (First Nations self-governance)?
